

Attention Artists! The Acton/Agua Dulce Arts Council and Friends of Acton/Agua Dulce Library present Chair-ity at the Library – One-of-a-kind chairs by local artists.

How to participate:

FIND A CHAIR: Anywhere! Maybe you have an old stool, ottoman, kitchen chair, or chaise lounge. You could shop at a second hand store, a yard sale or design a chair from scratch. Chair-ity fundraisers are happening everywhere. Google it for ideas.

DESIGN THE CHAIR: You are creating a work of art; the ONLY guideline is that it must involve a chair. The end result can be utilitarian, or not. It can be strictly sculptural, or not. It can be recognizable as a chair, or not. It can be anything, as long as you started with a chair!

BRING THE CHAIR TO the LIBRARY : We know artists are constantly asked to donate their work for fundraisers. We want this to be different. This is not just a donation; this is a way to showcase artists in Acton and Agua Dulce. We are asking you to represent your art through your design for the chair. Consider how the chair will represent you as an artist. We will be promoting all participating artists. Chairs will be put on display at Acton/Agua Dulce Library with your advertising information. Each chair will be raffled. Tickets will be $5 each or 5 for $20. Proceeds will be split between Acton/Agua Dulce Arts Council and Friends of Acton/Agua Dulce Library. The drawing will be held on October 21st at the conclusion of FAADL’s “Edgar Allan Poe at the Library” performance and luncheon at approximately 2:30 pm. Tickets for that event are available from Kat Fandino (661)209-2014 for $25.

Please fill out the form indicating that you will be creating a chair for Chair-ity at the Library to help raise funds for art and literacy programs and events in Acton and Agua Dulce.

Please have your chair ready to be dropped off at Acton/Agua Dulce Library by October 9th so the community has time to preview and buy tickets by October 21st. You may call Kat Fandino (661)209-2014 for more information.
